

THEOLOGIES AND PRACTICES OF RELIGIOUS PLURALISM WITHIN ORTHODOX CHRISTIANITY

VOLOS ACADEMY FOR THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

VOLOS, GREECE

JANUARY 16TH 2023,
9.00 AM – 3.00 PM

WORKSHOP

What's the place of religious differences in Orthodox Christianity?

How much has Orthodox tradition engaged in dialogue, tolerance, inclusion towards Otherness?

How the Orthodox Church position itself between the defense of the “true religion” and the acceptance of the truth of the others?

Following the Birmingham and Bologna conferences, this workshop intends to continue reflection and analysis with a specific focus on pluralism within Orthodox Christianity and dialogue between the Orthodox Church and the other Churches and Confessions.

PARTICIPANTS

Giancarlo Bosetti ResetDOC, Chair

José Casanova Georgetown University,
President of ResetDOC Advisory Board

Jocelyne Cesari University of Birmingham

Cyril Hovorun Yale University

Pantelys Kalaitzidis Director of the Volos Academy

Aristotle Papanikolaou Fordham University

Alessia Passarelli FSCIRE Foundation for Religious Sciences

Katerina Pekridou Conference of European Churches

Elizabeth Prodromu Religious Freedom Center,
Freedom Forum Institute

Pavlo Smytsnyu Institute of Ecumenical Studies

Kristina Stoeckl University of Innsbruck