

ROUNDTABLE

THEOLOGIES AND PRACTICES OF RELIGIOUS PLURALISM IN CONTEMPORARY PROTESTANTISM

FROM LOCAL TO GLOBAL, BRIDGING PRACTITIONERS
AND SCHOLARS. PRESENTATION OF THE V-THEO PROJECT

WALDENSIAN TEMPLE CORSO VITTORIO EMANUELE II, 23, TURIN APRIL 3RD 2025, 5.00 –7.00 PM

In occasion of ResetDOC's research project on the Theologies and Practices of Religious Pluralism and its workshop on the Theologies and Practices of Pluralism in Protestantism, organized in collaboration with the Waldensian Church of Turin, the representatives of the different religious communities of the city will gather for a roundtable to share local experiences of dialogue within the community. The roundtable will focus on how different denominations engage with other religions and how religious traditions have adjusted to increased social and religious diversity within the urban context of Turin, providing perspectives from Protestant, Catholic and Muslim faiths.
